A biography of the famous writer and poet.

A Season for That
BY STEVE HOFFMAN (JULY 9)
An American food writer moves his family to the French countryside, where the locals upend everything he knows about cooking and winemaking.

Tiger, Tiger
BY JAMES PATTERSON (JULY 15)
A biography of possibly the greatest golfer of all time.

The Striker and the Clock
BY GEORGIA CLEFFEL (JULY 16)
A memoir about playing professional soccer for six years on six different teams in six different countries.

Midnight in Moscow
BY JOHN SULLIVAN (AUGUST 6)
A memoir by the most recent U.S. ambassador to Moscow, who was working there when Russia invaded Ukraine.

The Mysterious Mrs. Nixon
BY HEATH HARDAGE LEE (AUGUST 6)
A biography of Patricia Nixon.

Billionaire, Nerd, Savior, King
BY ANUPREETA DAS (AUGUST 13)

A Wilder Shore
BY CAMILLE PERI (AUGUST 13)
A portrait of the romance and partnership of Fanny and Robert Louis Stevenson.

That Librarian
BY AMANDA JONES (AUGUST 27)
A memoir by a Louisiana librarian who is currently fighting for the right to read.
THE BRAVE IN-BETWEEN
BY AMY LOW (JUNE 4)
A memoir by a woman who has lived for several years with Stage IV colon cancer.

THE PIANO PLAYER OF BUDAPEST
BY ROXANNE DE BASTION (JUNE 4)
A memoir about the author’s grandfather and the piano that has been in her family for over 100 years.

THIS ORDINARY STARDUST
BY ALAN TOWNSEND (JUNE 4)
An ecologist explores scientific wonder and ponders how its focus and beauty helped him to endure a family tragedy.

CONSENT
BY JILL CIMENT (JUNE 11)
A memoir of a love affair between the author and her painting teacher, which began in the 1970s when she was a teenager and he was married with two children.

TRAVELING
BY ANN POWERS (JUNE 11)
A biography of Joni Mitchell by the NPR music critic.

UNDER A ROCK
BY CHRIS STEIN (JUNE 11)
A memoir by a founding member of Blondie.

THE UPTOWN LOCAL
BY CORY LEADBEATER (JUNE 11)
A memoir about the author’s years as a personal assistant to Joan Didion.

1974
BY FRANCINE PROSE (JUNE 18)
A memoir by the award-winning writer about coming of age in San Francisco during the 1970s.

NIGHT FLYER
BY TIYA MILES (JUNE 18)
A biography of Harriet Tubman by the National Book Award-winning author.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS
BY RANDALL WOODS (JUNE 25)
A biography of the 6th President of the United States.
The stories of Miles Davis, John Coltrane, and Bill Evans that help to explain the massive rise in popularity of jazz in the 1950s.

An intimate and introspective memoir about growing up poor and black in a broken home and finding self-acceptance.

A biography of the artist Keith Haring.

A New York Times war correspondent shares his struggle with terminal brain cancer.

A former nun describes her 12 years in an English priory and the circumstances that led to her eventual departure.

A founder of the fashion blog Accidental Icon explains how to age naturally, happily and with self-acceptance.

A biography of the actress Anna May Wong.

A memoir by the woman who testified against Justice Kavanaugh.

The story of the author’s father, who was a night fighter pilot during World War Two.

A memoir by a Ukrainian journalist about the war in Ukraine.

A memoir of a remarkable life and an accidental career.

A memoir by the Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist about his career, the people he met and the historic events he covered.

A memoir from the Rock & Roll Hall of Famer, Grammy Award-winner and platinum selling singer-songwriter.

A biography of the legendary editor Judith Jones.

A memoir by the Grammy Award-winning musician told through 23 songs.

3 Shades of Blue by James Kaplan (March 5)

The House of Hidden Meanings by Rupaul (March 5)

Radiant by Brad Gooch (March 5)

Waiting for the Monsoon by Rod Nordland (March 5)

Cloistered by Catherine Coldstream (March 12)

How to Be Old by Lyn Slater (March 12)

Not Your China Doll by Katie Gee Salisbury (March 12)

A Very Private School by Charles Spencer (March 12)

Life by Pope Francis (March 19)

One Way Back by Christine Blasey Ford (March 19)
A memoir about the experience of becoming a military wife.

A memoir about the gifts and letters a mother left behind after she died when her daughter was 11.

The award-winning author discusses the attempt on his life in the summer of 2022, its repercussions and the role of art in his life and the world.

The Pulitzer Prize-winning author shares the story of the time capsule project she and her husband embarked on during the last years of his life.

The story of a child born in the Jewish ghetto of Lithuania during the Nazi regime.

The Academy Award-winning actress reflects on the many Shakespearean roles she's played throughout her career.

A memoir by the NFL star about living with ALS.

A study of how the monarchy survived, and of how Queen Elizabeth II thrived, in the aftermath of World War II.

Five women reflect on their years as ballerinas with the Dance Theatre of Harlem, an all-Black dance company founded in 1969 by Balanchine protégé Arthur Mitchell.

The first authorized biography of the man who created James Bond.

First-person reflections from librarians and booksellers about their work and their passion for literature.

A memoir of how a Midwestern “meat-and-potatoes-eating gal” opened a successful cooking school in Paris.

The first biography of noted art collector Isabella Stewart Gardner, who built a Boston museum to house her collection.

A biography that uses a lifelong relationship with basketball to muse on the ways in which we grow attached to our hometowns, even when they fail us.

A memoir by the bestselling novelist about how he learned to paint and draw.

A biography of Jelly Roll Morton, a key figure in the development of jazz.

A memoir about living in a trailer on the outskirts of a small town in Utah with four dogs.

A memoir about the actress' path to Hollywood and to self-love.

A biography about the thrilling and tragic career of Pete Rose.

The story of a child born in the Jewish ghetto of Lithuania during the Nazi regime.

A memoir about living in a trailer on the outskirts of a small town in Utah with four dogs.

A memoir by the bestselling novelist about how he learned to paint and draw.

A biography of Jelly Roll Morton, a key figure in the development of jazz.

A memoir by the bestselling novelist about how he learned to paint and draw.